

BILINGUAL HERITAGE EDUCATION

SHAKESPEARE IN ENGLISH

An immersive educational experience that brings the timeless world of William Shakespeare directly into the classroom. Students will explore some of his most important classics, discovering their themes, characters, and historical context in an engaging and accessible way. Professional actors and actresses will interact with the group, performing key scenes and inviting students to participate in dialogues, role-play activities, and creative interpretations.

A dynamic approach that fosters language development, cultural appreciation, and active learning through live theatre.

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND ENOLA IN YOUR CLASSROOM

Step into the world of mystery and investigation alongside Sherlock Holmes in an interactive classroom adventure. Students will become young detectives, solving clues, analysing evidence, and working collaboratively to uncover the truth behind a fascinating case. Enola Holmes will also join the investigation, guiding and challenging the group with hidden messages and unexpected twists.

Through theatrical performance and problem-solving tasks, this activity promotes critical thinking, teamwork, and engagement with classic detective storytelling.
